

Introduction

Ferry Farm is a BHS approved livery and facility centre situated approx 6 miles north east of Norwich city centre in the idyllic village of Woodbastwick, home to Woodfordes Brewery. Just 2 miles from the A47 it is ideally located for access.

Turned out in pairs

Owned and run by Violet Hill, an equine degree graduate with over 20 years experience, and Lesley Walker who joined the business after being a customer for many years. Ferry Farm prides itself on its friendly atmosphere and high standards, with each horse receiving individual treatment from its dedicated team of staff. Living on site Violet is on hand for out of hour emergencies and tuition in the evenings.
